Walking/Pickleball has Resumed at Comm. HallSubmitted*

Morning walking at the Christmas Valley Community Hall, which is co-sponsored by the Christmas Valley/North Lake Chamber of Commerce and North Lake Park and Recreation District, has resumed. Every Monday and Thursday at 7:00 a.m. join other members of the community in a safe environment, out of the weather for walking INSIDE the Community Hall. Also, equipment will be available for casual games of pickleball.

For more information contact the CV/NL chamber at 541-576-3838.<sup>22</sup>

Letter to the Editor:
Cleaning Up the CountySubmitted*

In response to the process of cleaning up property, I agree this issue should be addressed. "By Whom?" Some cannot afford to go to the dump. Abandoned means just that. Some owners and renters have literally skipped out.

Now, on the other hand, I believe Lake County needs to start cleaning up their own back yards. There is a deer carcass at Ivy and CV Hwy that has been there all summer. I am sure the locals as well as tourists enjoy that sight. Then there are truck tire pieces along with farmers debris along all the main roads.

The sagebrush at all County intersections along dirt and paved roads is making it hazardous. You have to pull all the way out to be able to see. Who is going to T-Bone who?

Outback Retirement Center Update: Hank's House

Submitted by John Effingham

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Outback Retirement Center, Inc. It's my pleasure to announce that the long sought-after activity center doors will open in time for the holidays.

For the community's long support and volunteers, too many to list, and hard working, limited staff, combined with grants from, The Lake County Community Foundation, Ford Family Foundation, The Collins Foundation, and The Oregon Community Foundation, and still others such as the Stutzman family, thank you each and every one.

Although the commercial kitchen will not be finished until early spring of 2018 the rest of the building is now available just in time for year end and holiday events.

The building itself will be named "Hank's House" in loving memory of Mr. Hank Warkentin: the man that started it all with a dream that there would be a place in North Lake for seniors. But not just seniors: for the whole community to come together and fellowship and support one another.

The Center will be working closely with Klamath & Lake Counties Council on Aging to bring to North Lake many services for the elderly usually only available in larger communities.

The building will be available for renting beginning November 20, 2017 without the kitchen. Please keep in mind that this is an ongoing project. Please bear with us as we move forward toward affordable housing for seniors. There will be some construction mess associated with growth.

For reservations and questions call the office number 541-576-2225.

Again, thank you to each one that has had a part in getting us to this point. We will continue to need volunteers and donations so please let us know if you would like to be a part of the Outback Retirement Center, Inc.

Back in Thyme Herbals: It's About Gout

By Linda McCoslin - Regular Contributor to DESERT WHISPERS

I have been asked about gout a lot lately. Specifically about how to ease the pain, where it comes from, and how to get rid of it.

Gout is one of the most painful of the rheumatic diseases, caused by deposits of needlelike crystals of uric acid in the connective tissue, joint spaces, or both. The joint most commonly effected first is the big toe. This is called podagra. Inflammation is initiated by deposition of uric acid from the bloodstream in the joint. When these crystals are injected by white blood cells, the cells release enzymes that generate inflammation. Uric acid is a naturally occurring substance of the chemical breakdown of the purine bases that compose the genetic material DNA. As cells die and release DNA from their chromosomes, purines are converted into uric that is excreted in the urine, and through the intestinal tract. If the body increases its production of uric acid, or the kidneys don't eliminate enough uric acid, it builds up causing a condition called hyperuricemia, a form of early gout. This condition can also occur when a person eats too many high-purine foods, such as liver, dried beans and peas, anchovies, and gravies. Uric acid crystals can collect in the kidneys and cause kidney stones.

Risk factors for developing hyperuricemia and gout can be genetics, obesity (excessive food intake increases the body's production of uric acid), over consumption of alcohol (interferes with the elimination of uric acid), over eating purine-rich foods, an enzyme defect that interferes with break down of purines, exposure to lead, co-existing medical conditions, and certain medicines including: diuretics, salicylates (aspirin), niacin, cyclosporine and levadopa.

Treatments for gout include some diuretics which help flush urates from body (herbal diuretics are recommended), and anti-inflammatories help some. Drink six pints of liquid a day. Slightly alkaline, natural spring water is recommended. Avoid alcohol. Eat raw fruits, veggies, grains, seeds and nuts, exercise regularly and maintain a healthy weight.

Cherries are very effective in lowering acid levels, as well as hawthorn berries, blueberries, and any other dark red-blue berries. Herbs that help are the young leaves and twigs of birch, wild carrot (a diuretic), white willow (an anti-inflammatory). Apple cider vinegar once a day destroys crystals! Alfalfa, buckthorn, comfrey root, corn silk, couch grass, dandelion, fennel, horseradish root, oat straw, parsley, pennyroyal, primrose, and safflower are extremely good; as are sarsaparella, St. Johns wort, wood betony, yellow dock, and yucca.

WORD SEARCH CONTEST

- Yoga For Every Body -

Once again, both Sandra Russell and Cathleen Cagle responded correctly to the word search contest in the November 1, 2017 issue of DESERT WHISPERS. The missing phrase was "Yoga For Every Body." Cathleen Cagle was chosen by random selection as the winner of a free 1 column x 3 inch, black and white ad in a future issue of DESERT WHISPERS. Contact the editor to claim your prize.

Yoga is a group of physical, mental, and spiritual practices or disciplines which originated in ancient India. Across the U.S. are thousands of yoga studios. Listed below are what some consider to be the top 30 U.S. cities for yoga and meditation. Hidden in the letter matrix are 29 of the 30. Which ONE is missing? Send your name and answer to: desertwhispers@yahoo.com or drop it off at the Park and Rec office by November 24, 2017. Names of entrants with correct answers will be printed in the December 1, 2017 DESERT WHISPERS.

One random winner, drawn from all correct answers, wins a free one column x 3 inch, b/w display ad (a $10 value) in a future issue of DESERT WHISPERS.

FACT:

Los Gatos is Spanish for "the cats." The name derives from the 1839 Alta California land-grant that encompassed the area, which was called La Rinconada de Los Gatos, ("Cat's Corner"), where "the cats" refers to the cougars and bobcats that are indigenous to the foothills in which the town is located.

Lake County Cultural Coalition opens 2018 Community Participation Grants

Submitted

Small grants to support cultural activity in Lake County related to Arts, Heritage and Humanities are being offered. These grants will be awarded through a competitive application process.

Any nonprofit organization that stages cultural events or activities in Lake County is invited to apply for funds to support a specific event or project. In past years grants have supported music programs, art workshops, live theater, historical projects, history exhibits, poetry and library readings, and preservation of historic buildings.

Additional information about the Oregon Cultural Trust and the Lake County Cultural Coalition Plan can be found on the Lake County web site: <http://www.lake-countyor.org> under the Advisory Boards & Committees listing.

Grant Applications can be found at the above website or by contacting Secretary, Ann Crumrine 541-947-6030 or acrumrine@co.lake.or.us.

Grant Application submissions MUST be postmarked no later than December 15, 2017.

Park & Rec's TRUNK or TREAT 2017

On the night of Tuesday, October 31st, spooks, spirits, skeletons, stormtroopers, ninjas, superheros, cartoon characters, flying unicorns, and princesses descended on the Christmas Valley Community Hall for an evening filled with candy and fun. Organized as an alternative to traditional door-to-door trick or treating, it was North Lake Park and Recreation's 3rd annual Trunk or Treat event.

Individuals dispensing the candy competed by decorating their area. Rose

Rogers won first prize. "It was another great turn-out," said Board member Barbara Ferrando, "Everyone loved it."

Organizers would like to thank everyone who attended the event, as well as all those who helped make it happen. Special thanks to Becky Tocol for her prize donation, and to Joe Watts for the photos. Plans are already in the works for 2018. If you'd like to be involved, please contact North Lake Park and Recreation at 541-576-2216.

From The Top: Fluid Time

By Katharine Matchette - Regular Contributor to DESERT WHISPERS

I think I have a bone to pick with Benjamin Franklin. While serving as U.S. envoy to France he wrote a satirical article on saving candle wax in Paris. Among other things he suggested setting clocks ahead an hour, giving more daylight in the winter evenings. He never expected anyone to take him seriously, but nonetheless he put the idea out there and it stayed.

More than a century later - in 1895 - a man named George Hudson actually proposed the idea. Fortunately for the world, nothing happened. However, at the end of April in 1916 Germany and the Austro-Hungarian Empire began using daylight-saving time.

Here in the United States we began to try out daylight-saving time in 1918 during World War I. Congress legally confirmed national time zones, then declared daylight-saving time. People did not like it! After the war ended, congress voted to end daylight time. Woodrow Wilson vetoed the bill—and got overridden. For the next few years daylight-saving time became an option. West of the Mississippi very few states or cities adopted it. During the late 1950s time in summer varied from town to town in Oregon. On her first job, management told my sister she could chose which time she worked on. For outdoor workers like farmers and loggers, DST meant they had to get up about 3:00 AM. Some log dumps operated on DST, which forced loggers to quit work while light remained. I lived through this and what a mess it was! Oregon governor Mark Hatfield had a hand in all this confusion. I always thought that when he went to congress he mucked things up for the entire country.

By 1966 freight companies found the hit or miss approach to time zones hard to deal with. They lobbied for and got federal DST control. From my point of view, that helped. At least I did not have to set my watch ahead or back when I went to town. However, where is the logic? Why not have summer hours for urban businesses? Coming and going an hour early would have the same effect. As things are now, when we “spring forward” heart attacks increase across the country. I suspect no one likes to change and reset clocks. Most people I've talked to would prefer one time all year. Some would prefer daylight and others standard time. In Christmas Valley time has little bearing on when farmers work. Hay cutting happens when the dew comes in regardless of the time of day. It stops when it's too dry. Other tasks happen when it's light. Who cares what time it is!

I lived in Indiana when I married. In those days my part of Indiana had opted out of daylight-saving time. We lived on Eastern standard time, but 50 miles away, South Bend was on Central time. It had its advantages. We received network TV from both time zones. If something interrupted us during a TV program all we had to do was change stations and get it the next hour.

Then one year the entire state switched to Eastern time. The same year we went on daylight-saving time. Our brother-in-law had to put his clock forward two hours at once. By that time I believed that switching times was for the birds.

So that's why I have a bone to pick with Ben Franklin and George Hudson. I'm not too happy with Kaiser Wilhelm of WW I infamy either. If I could I would settle this in the true American way: I would sue them all. Anybody want to join me in a class-action suit?

North Lake School Veterans Program

Mark Joseph Russell, Editor

Community members, school staff, and the entire North Lake School student body honored and thanked two-dozen local veterans on Thursday, November 9th. Elementary students sang several songs and the high school drama class presented "The Pledge of Allegiance" in the style of Red Skelton. The program ended with a Heros Handshake, where every student shook hands with the veterans.

Box Tops For Education

Stephanie Strickland

My name is Stephanie Strickland. I am the sixth grade teacher at North Lake School, and I'm thrilled to be our school's Box Tops for Education™ Coordinator.

Clipping Box Tops is an easy way to help earn cash for our school. Each one is worth 10¢ for our school! Just look for the pink Box Tops on hundreds of products. All you have to do is clip them and send them to school.

Each classroom will be collecting filled collection sheets and/or trimmed box tops, so send them in with your student at any time. For more information on Box Tops go to www.BTFE.com. Be sure to sign up as a member (it's free!) so you can check out our school's earnings details and get access to coupons and bonus offers.

North Lake School has been without a Box Tops coordinator for a few years, and even so, we had $64.00 worth of box tops to send in on November 1, 2017 submission day. With your help, I am sure we can reach $1000.00 by the next submission date on March 1, 2018.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact Roxanne Hand or me. We are here to help make our school's Box Tops for Education™ program a huge success.

Thanks for your help!

Editor's note: Plans are underway to establish drop-off points in the community so even those without students currently attending at North Lake School may contribute to this cause.
